THE "GALATEA."

Her first night on the stage.

Fort Hamilton, N. Y., Aug. 19.—There was considerable excitement among the audience at the place about 1:30 this afternoon, which was caused by the appearance of the British opera "Galateia," which came flying through the Narrows at plain sail. She had been with much curiosity all the morning at the anchorage of the Atlantic house at the Ridge. It was reported that she would make her first sail on the New York Club tonight, but at about one o'clock there was a breeze on board and, in a few moments her anchor was up, and she was on her way. She carried two of her boats on deck, and towed a third, just as the "Galateia" was her course to Sandy Hook. She carried
